

Media Release

OFAH FILE: 842
March 8, 2006

To Select Media

For Immediate Release:

BIG NAME HUNTERS share their secrets at the Outdoor Canada Hunting Hall

If you need a dose of hunting this winter, the upcoming Toronto Sportsmen's Show has your prescription. It's called the Outdoor Canada Hunting Hall, an incredible showcase of hunting manufacturers, retailers, new products, and special O.F.A.H. promotions, including an opportunity to meet Jude St. John, of the Toronto Argonauts.

"We always look forward to welcoming the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters to the Toronto Sportsmen's Show, and our new Outdoor Canada Hunting Hall is sure to please those who just can't get enough of hunting," said Harley Austin, Manager of the Toronto Sportsmen's Show. The show runs from March 15 to 19, at the National Trade Centre, in downtown Toronto.

This year's Toronto Sportsmen's Show will feature top-notch hunting seminars presented by some of the industry's best, such as:

- ❑ Alex Gouthro, renowned moose hunting and calling expert;
- ❑ Excalibur's Bill Troubridge, with the information on crossbows;
- ❑ Rocky Crawford, with tips on bow hunting deer and turkeys;
- ❑ Advanced Taxidermy's Shawn Galea and James McGregor, on how to field prep your wall-hanger for the taxidermist;
- ❑ Jim Strelec with secrets from the turkey woods; and
- ❑ The Angler & Hunter television's new host, Cam Brownson, with hunting "tips to give you the edge."

Toronto Argonauts offensive lineman, and proud O.F.A.H. member, #66 Jude St. John, will also take the stage to talk about waterfowl hunting as well as new hunting products available from Avery. Following his presentation, Jude will be at the O.F.A.H. membership booth to sell memberships and sign autographs.

For show times please visit www.sportshows.ca.